given edition of the Conference between the Participant and the Organizer.

§ 1 GENERAL PRINCIPLES

- 1.1. These Regulations set out the rules for participation in the Deep Tech Summit 2026 Conference organized by the Organizer.
- 1.2. To complete Registration, the Buyer must meet the following minimum technical conditions: a device with Internet access capable of displaying the Organizer's Website, an installed and updated web browser, an active email account, and an active mobile phone number.
- 1.3. By registering for the Conference, the Buyer declares that they have read and accept these Terms and Conditions.
- 1.4. Where the Buyer registers on behalf of a third-party Participant, the Buyer undertakes to ensure that the Participant complies with these Regulations and to make them available to the Participant.
- 1.5. During the Conference, Participants are required to conduct themselves in accordance with good manners, in particular not to hinder or interfere with other Participants' free participation in the Conference, and to follow the guidelines and recommendations of the Organizer.
- 1.6. In the event of an epidemiological situation, Participants are required to comply with all applicable sanitary requirements in force as of the date of the Conference. The list of requirements will be available at the Conference venue and on the Organizer's Website. A change in such requirements does not constitute an amendment to the Regulations.

§ 2 ORDINAL RULES

- 2.1. It is forbidden to bring or possess weapons, dangerous objects, explosives, flammable or explosive materials, alcoholic beverages, other intoxicants, or psychotropic drugs at the Conference venue.
- 2.2. During the Conference, it is forbidden to smoke, use chemical or fire-hazardous substances, or block passages and emergency exits.
- 2.3. Participants must comply with health, safety, and fire regulations applicable to the Conference premises.
- 2.4. During the Conference, it is forbidden for Participants to distribute advertising materials without the prior consent of the Organizer.
- 2.5. Where a Participant receives a conference badge, they are obliged to wear it in a visible place and to present it upon request of the Organizer. Transfer of the badge to third parties is prohibited.
- 2.6. Persons in a state of intoxication behaving in a manner that may violate the rights of other Participants or damage property at the Conference venue may be required by the Organizer's representatives to leave the Conference. Such action does not constitute a breach of the Agreement by the Organizer.
- 2.7. Participants are required to immediately report to the Organizer any cases of inappropriate or disturbing behaviour.
- 2.8. Participants may take photos and short recordings for personal use, including sharing on social media platforms such as Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn, provided this does not interfere with the event and does not violate the rights of other attendees. Any other recording of the Conference in any form requires the prior written consent of the Organizer.

§ 3 DATE AND PLACE OF THE CONFERENCE

- 3.1. The Conference may be held onsite or online.
- 3.2. The Organizer reserves the right to change the date or place of the Conference. Such a change does not constitute an amendment to the Agreement. Participants will be informed of any change by email to the address provided in the registration form.
- 3.3. In the event of a change of date or venue, a Buyer who is a Consumer is entitled to submit a statement of withdrawal from the Agreement within 14 days of being informed of such change.
- 3.4. The commencement date of the Agreement shall be 7 (seven) days before the first day of the Conference ("Commencement Date"), at which point the Organizer shall begin printing badges, preparing information materials, and implementing logistical arrangements for the Conference.

§ 4 TERMS OF PARTICIPATION AND REGISTRATION

- 4.1. Participants in the Conference may be natural persons with total legal capacity.
- 4.2. Registration for the Conference is conducted online via the registration form, where the Buyer also selects the Package. Successful Registration requires providing all mandatory data in the registration form.
- 4.3. Participation in the Conference is conditional upon: (i) reading and accepting these Terms and Conditions; (ii) reading the Privacy Policy; (iii) payment of the Fee for the selected Package.
- 4.4. Where Registration is made by a Buyer who is not the Participant, the Buyer is responsible for the completeness and accuracy of the Participant's personal data in the registration form.
- 4.5. The Agreement is concluded upon the Buyer's successful payment of the Fee for the selected Package.
- 4.6. Upon submission of the registration form, the Buyer receives confirmation of the Agreement as a Ticket to the email address provided in the registration form.
- 4.7. The Organizer shall record, secure, and make available to the Buyer the content of the concluded Agreement by sending it to the Buyer's email address provided in the registration form.
- 4.8. Performance of the Agreement by the Organizer occurs on the day the Conference is held.
- 4.9. The Organizer allows for the substitution of a Participant, provided such change is reported no less than 7 (seven) days before the Conference, unless otherwise agreed with the Organizer. To request a substitution, the Buyer must notify the Organizer at office@deeptechsummit.eu, providing details of both the outgoing and incoming Participant. The substitution will be confirmed if the incoming Participant meets the eligibility conditions set out in section 4.1.

§ 5 PRICE LIST AND FEES

- 5.1. Participation in the Conference is subject to a Fee; the amount depends on the selected Package and the resulting scope of benefits available to the Participant.
- 5.2. All prices in the Price List are gross amounts expressed in Polish zloty (PLN) and include VAT at 23%.
- 5.3. Payment of the Conference Fee is possible: (i) by bank transfer; (ii) through a third-party payment system provider; (iii) by Google Pay or Apple Pay; (iv) by credit card.
- 5.4. If the Buyer wishes to pay by bank transfer, they must contact the Organizer at office@deeptechsummit.eu, specifying the number and type of tickets in accordance with the Price List. The Organizer will respond with a pro forma invoice and payment details. Payment must be made within 3 (three) business days. Failure to pay within this period means no Agreement is concluded.
- 5.5. Where payment is made via an external payment system, Google Pay, or Apple Pay, the Buyer is automatically redirected to the chosen provider and pays in accordance with that provider's terms and conditions.
- 5.6. For each Ticket sold, the Organizer shall issue a VAT invoice after the Conference Fee is posted. The Buyer agrees to receive the VAT invoice electronically to the email address provided in the registration form.
- 5.7. A Participant may upgrade their Ticket to a higher Package by paying a surcharge in accordance with the Price List. Upgrade requests should be submitted to office@deeptechsummit.eu. The upgrade is subject to availability.

§ 6 WITHDRAWAL

- 6.1. A Buyer who is a Consumer may withdraw from the Agreement within 14 (fourteen) days from the date of conclusion of the Agreement, without stating any reason. This right expires on the Commencement Date (7 days before the Conference) due to the commencement of performance of the Agreement at that point, as the Organizer begins logistical preparations on behalf of the Participant. The Buyer is informed of this limitation at the point of Registration. Withdrawal is executed by submitting a written statement to: office@deeptechsummit.eu.
- 6.2. In the event of effective withdrawal, the Organizer shall, within 14 (fourteen) days from receipt of the withdrawal statement, refund the Fee in the same manner as the original payment was made.
- 6.3. The Ticket of a Participant who has effectively withdrawn from the Agreement is cancelled, which the Organizer confirms by email to the address provided in the registration form.

§ 7 IMAGE AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 7.1. The Organizer may record the Conference in the form of photographs, audio, and/or video recordings for documentation and promotional purposes. The use of Participants' image is based on the legitimate interest of the Organizer within the meaning of Article 6(1)(f) GDPR, consisting of the right to document and promote the Conference.

7.2. Any Participant who objects to the recording or dissemination of their image has the right to object at any time by notifying the Organizer at office@deeptechsummit.eu. The Organizer will make reasonable efforts to exclude the Participant's image from future dissemination and to avoid recording Participants who have objected.

7.3. Recordings and photographs may be used on the Organizer's website, in media reports, and in promotional and informational publications relating to the Conference, including on websites of entities other than the Organizer, without time or territorial limitations, unless an objection has been received.

7.4. All materials presented during the Conference or otherwise made available to Participants constitute legally protected intellectual property vested in the Organizer or a third party. Participants may not use such materials without the prior written consent of the Organizer or the relevant third party, except for personal use of materials explicitly made available to Participants within their selected Package.

§ 8 PERSONAL DATA

8.1. Personal data of Participants is processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Privacy Policy available at: <https://deeptechsummit.eu/privacy-policy/>

8.2. A Buyer who registers on behalf of a Participant undertakes to allow the Participant to read the Privacy Policy referred to in section 8.1 above.

§ 9 COMPLAINTS

9.1. Complaints related to the Conference should be sent to the Organizer electronically at office@deeptechsummit.eu or in writing to the Organizer's registered office, together with a description of the issue and the requested resolution.

9.2. The Organizer will consider the complaint within 14 (fourteen) days of receipt and will notify the Participant of the outcome by email.

9.3. Where a Participant has already used part or all of the Conference benefits, any refund will be assessed proportionate to the unused part of the Package, in accordance with applicable consumer protection law.

§ 10 LIABILITY

10.1. To the extent permitted by applicable law, and solely with respect to Participants who are not Consumers, the Organizer's liability for damage caused through negligence is excluded, and the Organizer shall not be liable for the Participant's lost profits. Nothing in this section limits or excludes any liability that cannot be excluded under mandatory provisions of applicable law, including provisions protecting Consumers.

10.2. The Organizer's total liability to Participants who are not Consumers is limited to the amount of the Fee paid for the selected Package.

10.3. The Organizer shall not be liable for non-performance or improper performance of the Agreement to the extent caused by Force Majeure.

10.4. The Organizer is not responsible for property lost, damaged, or left unattended by Participants during the Conference.

§ 11 FORCE MAJEURE LIMITATIONS

11.1. The Organizer reserves the right to cancel the Conference in case of Force Majeure.

11.2. The Organizer reserves the right to modify the scope of Package benefits in case of Force Majeure, including to comply with applicable sanitary or public health guidelines. Such a change does not constitute an amendment to the Agreement. In such cases, the Organizer will refund the relevant portion of the Fee in the same manner as the original payment was made.

11.3. Where, following the purchase of a Ticket, participation becomes impossible due to the exhaustion or modification of Participant limits or individual Packages as a result of Force Majeure, the Organizer has the right to withdraw from the Agreement and shall inform the Participant within 3 (three) days of such decision by email. In such case, the Organizer shall refund the Fee in full within 14 (fourteen) days.

11.4. If the number of Participants must be reduced due to Force Majeure, priority shall be given to Participants in order of the date of payment of the Fee, starting from the earliest.

11.5. In exceptional cases of Force Majeure, particularly where public authorities prohibit or significantly restrict the possibility of organizing the Conference in its planned form, the Organizer is entitled to hold the Conference in an online-only format.

11.6. In the case referred to in section 11.5, the Organizer shall inform Participants of the change to online format as soon as possible, no later than 14 (fourteen) days before the Conference, by email to the address provided in the registration form, unless the Force Majeure event occurs later. In such case, the Organizer shall not be liable for failure to perform the Agreement in its original form, as performance will be completed online.

11.7. In all Force Majeure scenarios, the Organizer shall notify Participants of any date, venue, or format change, or cancellation, no later than 3 (three) days before the Conference, unless the Force Majeure event occurs later. Non-consumer Participants shall not be entitled to any claim against the Organizer in such cases, except for a claim for reimbursement of the unperformed portion of the Package.

§ 12 SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR NON-CONSUMER BUYERS

12.1. The following special provisions apply to Buyers who are not Consumers:

(a) Disputes between a non-consumer Buyer and the Organizer shall be resolved by the court having jurisdiction over the Organizer's registered office.

(b) If the Conference date is changed for reasons attributable to the Organizer and unrelated to Force Majeure, the Buyer may submit a statement of withdrawal from the Agreement within 5 (five) business days of receiving notice of the change. Failure to submit such a statement within this period shall be deemed acceptance of the new Conference date, and the right to withdraw shall expire.

(c) Violation of these Regulations entitles the Organizer to exclude the Participant from the Conference, resulting in the forfeiture of the right to remaining Package benefits.

§ 13 FINAL PROVISIONS

13.1. The governing law for obligations under the Agreements and these Terms and Conditions shall be Polish law, provided that this reservation shall not deprive a Participant who is a Consumer of the protection afforded by mandatory provisions of the law of their country of habitual residence.

13.2. These Terms and Conditions are made in English. In the event of any discrepancy between language versions, the English version shall prevail.

13.3. Any additional and individual agreements between Participants and the Organizer must be made in writing or electronic form under pain of nullity.

13.4. The Organizer may amend these Regulations for significant legal reasons (change of applicable law or the Organizer's legal form) or technical reasons (modernization of the registration process or Website), as well as in the event of Force Majeure. Participants will be informed of any change by email no less than 14 (fourteen) days before the amendment takes effect.

13.5. A non-consumer Participant who does not terminate the Agreement within the period referred to in section 13.4 shall be deemed to have accepted the amended Regulations. A Consumer Participant must expressly accept or refuse the amended Terms and Conditions; refusal shall be treated as withdrawal from the Agreement.

13.6. In the event of a dispute, a Consumer Participant may: (i) apply to a permanent consumer arbitration court; (ii) request mediation or settlement from an alternative dispute resolution (ADR) body; or (iii) submit a complaint via the EU ODR platform at <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>. If a Participant does not wish to use ADR or ODR, disputes shall be resolved by the competent ordinary court.

13.7. Disputes between the Organizer and a non-consumer Participant shall be submitted to the court having jurisdiction over the Organizer's registered office.

13.8. If any provision of these Regulations proves invalid in whole or in part, the remaining provisions shall remain in force. Invalid provisions shall be replaced by an interpretation that most closely achieves the intended legal and economic effect.

13.9. These Terms and Conditions enter into force on May 1, 2026.
